SHREE BHAVANI GROUP OF INSTITUTIONS

Welcome Note

Welcome to Shree Bhavani Group of Institutions. All Institute of this group are running under the St. Lords Educational Trust. The St. Lords Educational Trust was established in 2003 by Dr. D. Devaiah & its first concern was to concentrate on nursing education for young aspirants of India. The Trust aims to offer education that would address the growing demands worldwide. For us, education does not lie in the quantification of knowledge, but it lies in the quality of knowledge. Quality education not only means good academic results but also the spiritual, mental and physical development that helps to form the character of a student in our institution. Forming them as competent, committed and compassionate human being for the society is our goal. By believing in this philosophy we started Shree Bhavani Group of Institutions in the year 2003. This institute prepares its students to develop ability to analyse situations and problems, critically and take responsibilities for their higher education for maximum professional effectiveness throughout their career. At Shree Bhavani Group of Institutions adequate attention is paid to the human dimensions of the nursing profession along with equipping the students with appropriate skills. In our Institution, B.Sc. Nursing And General Nursing & Midwifery (GNM) program prepares expert Nurse Clinicians for practice, with the use of emerging technology to enhance access to our programs by providing course work that is convenient and timely for clinicians and students. Our programs are rooted in the philosophies of Florence Nightingale and builds on the Indian nursing council curriculum, which sees Nursing as the knowledge and practice of human caring. Caring praxis is seen as practice that is informed by an ethos of caring. Our Institute has adequate and sufficient facilities to produce quality nurses, well trained and well groomed in their respective discipline who can confidently pass out from this Institute and serve anywhere in the world as good, loyal and efficient nurses. Come and visit us to see yourself.

Admission Director MESSAGE

Mr. Debasis Panda Bhartiya

We cannot always build the future for our youth, but we can build our youth for the future. I heartily welcome you to Shree Bhavani Group of Institutions: There are multiple opportunities and avenues for co-curricular and extra-curricular activities leading to the holistic development of the individual. We give high importance to student faculty interaction beyond class room, analytical and integrative thinking through case studies, study tours, internship within India and abroad & field based projects. Special attention is given to sensitize the students to the problems of rural population and the underprivileged section. Similarly development of strong professional values, work ethic, and mutual respect for diversity in the society is consciously integrated in the curriculum today at a global level we can sense that the world is passing through various crisis of moral values, relentless exploitation of natural resources, climate change, etc. All these problems pose a threat to the human race, putting a serious doubt on our survival. You are problem solvers, organizers and innovators, so think about these challenges and devise technological /scientific solution to shape the society to sustain us for the future. We see you all as a vital partner in the India's quest for progress and prosperity. We, assure you our full extended support and enough freedom to explore your full potential. The realization of your potential will definitely empower you to face the challenges of the future. We all are well aware about the need of quality education and conducive environment for learning. My best wishes for those who seek to be a part of Shree Bhavani Group of Institutions which is on a mission to strive for quality in teaching and learning, research and discovery, outreach and public service.

LOCATION IMPORTANCE

Bengaluru, officially known as Bengaluru is the capital of the Indian state of Karnataka. It is located in southern India, on the Deccan Plateau at an elevation of over 900m (3,000 ft.) above sea level, which is the highest among India's major cities. Its multiethnic, multi religious, and cosmopolitan character is reflected by its more than 1000 Hindu temples, 400 mosques, 100 churches, 40 Jain Basadis, three Sikh gurdwaras, two Buddhist viharas and one parsi fire temple located in an area of 741 km of the metropolis. Bengaluru is sometimes referred to as the "Silicon Valley of India" (or "IT capital of India") because of its role as the nation's leading information technology (IT) exporter Indian technological organizations ISRO, Infosys, Wipro and HAL are headquartered in the city. A demographically diverse city, Bengaluru is the second fastest growing major metropolis in India. Bengaluru has one of the most highly educated workforces in the world. It is home to many educational and research institutions, such as Indian Institute of Science (IISc), Indian Institute of Management Bangalore (IIMB), International Institute of Information Technology Bangalore (IIITB), National Institute of Fashion Technology, Bengaluru, located in the city. The city also houses the Kannada film industry. Bangalore has a tropical savanna climate (Koppen climate classification Aw) with distinct wet and dry seasons. Due to its high elevation, Bengaluru usually enjoys a more moderate climate throughout the year, although occasional heat waves can make summer somewhat uncomfortable. The coolest month is January with an average low temperature of 15.1c (59.2F) and the hottest month is April with an average high temperature of 35 c (95 F) Bengaluru is known as the "Garden City of India" because of its greenery, broad streets and the presence of many public parks, such as LalBagh and Cubbon Park. Bengaluru is sometimes called as the "Pub Capital of India" and the "Rock/Metal Capital of India" because of its underground music scene and it is one of the premier places to hold International rock concerts.
